5. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

Ruder & Finn will seek to publicize the work and policies of the present Spanish Government. Specifically, we will seek to send journalists to Spain to interview key personalities in the Government, develop articles on Spain for U.S. publications, assist in arrangements for having the Prime Minister meet with leading government figures in the U.S. and to carry out ancillary projects in regard to these meetings such as press conferences, interviews with newspapers, magazines and television and meetings with opinion and business leaders. It is also possible that Ruder & Finn will work on developing an arts project with a major U.S. museum with treasures from Spanish museums. In addition, we will also be assisting Spanish television producers in how to use their media more effectively. Ruder & Finn will also be meeting with selected universities in an attempt to develop platforms for speeches and/or receptions for key members of the Spanish Government. Finally, we will also be advising the Spanish Government on press coverage in the U.S. and possible meetings with representatives of business and government who may be interested in developments in Spain.
